

WNY Postpartum Connection Inc.

Dear Provider,

Thank you for your interest in joining the WNY Postpartum Connection network of local providers. We have created a space where women and their families can go to find specialists in maternal mental health issues. This includes areas such as fertility concerns, grief and loss, pregnancy, and postpartum issues. To ensure that we are providing access to credentialed providers with specialized training in perinatal mood and anxiety disorders, and to maintain consistency across provider listings, we ask that you please email the following information to us at info@wnypostpartum.com:

- Your name and credentials (must be licensed in NY State)
- Contact information including address, phone number, website if applicable, method of payment accepted, any other information you would like listed on the website
- Information regarding specialized training that you have completed, specifically in perinatal mood and anxiety disorders. Please see below for a list of accepted trainings:
  - Postpartum Support International - <https://www.postpartum.net/professionals/trainings-events/>
  - Seleni Institute - <https://www.seleni.org/maternal-mental-health-training-online>
  - Maternal Mental Health Now "Bringing Light to Motherhood" - <https://www.maternalmentalhealthnow.org/providers/bringing-light-to-motherhood/>
  - Postpartum Stress Center - <https://postpartumstress.com/for-professionals/>

If you have any questions please email us at info@wnypostpartum.com. We look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,

Julie Rosinski, LCSW-R, PMH-C
Co-Director, WNY Postpartum Connection, Inc.

Lori Badach, LCSW-R, PMH-C
Co-Director, WNY Postpartum Connection, Inc.

Jennifer Mancuso Urban, LCSW-R, PMH-C
Co-Director, WNY Postpartum Connection, Inc.

WNYPPC, Inc. believes in equitable access to care and services for all. We are committed to strengthening our community through partnership, openness, and honest dialog around the experience of all members of our community. Discrimination based on race, color, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, or genetic information will not be tolerated. All are welcome here.